

Orton-Gillingham Training Sponsored by Whizzimo.com

This course introduces participants to the principles of the Orton-Gillingham methodology. This instructional methodology improves the reading and spelling abilities of students in the general education setting, those with language-based learning disabilities, English language learners, and struggling readers.

David Katz, the course's instructor, a fellow of the Academy of Orton-Gillingham Practitioners and Educators who has trained and mentored over 3,000 teachers in the Orton-Gillingham methodology.

Parents and tutors will also benefit from this course because Mr. Katz has added additional content to make the course relevant to one-on-one instruction.

Whizzimo.com, the premier digital Orton-Gillingham teaching platform, is sponsoring these trainings, which previously trained over 300 people throughout the country and abroad when it was sponsored by Learning Ally.

By the end of the course, each participant will know how to deliver effective whole-group, small-group, and individual Orton-Gillingham lessons with fidelity.

The cost is $800 per participant and $4,000 for site licenses, which are available to schools and organizations who would like to have their entire staffs trained. This price includes:

- ✓ 30 Hours of Instruction.
- ✓ A one-year subscription to Whizzimo.com - $99 value.
- ✓ A copy of David Katz's book, The Orton-Gillingham Educator's Guide - $50 value.
- ✓ David Katz's phonogram card pack - $50 value.
- ✓ Free domestic shipping for materials. International shipping prices vary.
- ✓ Continued support via a private Facebook Page and directly from David Katz via phone and email.

Additionally, each participant will have the option to sign up for additional coursework and/or practicums in order to become a Certified Classroom Educator through the Academy of Orton-Gillingham Practitioners and Educators or an Associate member of the Academy.
